MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

VOLUME XV. MILWAUKEE, FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1858. NUMBER 102.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 30.

TO ADVERTISERS.

☞ Business Notices appearing in the Local Columns will be charged 25 cents per line for the first, and 15 cents for each subsequent insertion.

☞ Transient Advertisements must be paid for invariably in advance.

☞ The number of insertions must in all cases be specified on the copy when handed in, as no "till forbid" Advertisements will be taken.

☞ Yearly Advertisers will be held strictly to Advertisements pertaining to their business. All other Notices will be charged at the Regular Rates.

☞ Extra displayed Advertisements, and those with large cuts, will be charged by the square for each insertion.

☞ Ordinary Notices of Deaths and Marriages inserted for twenty-five cents. Obituary Notices will be charged by the square.

The News.

The Arabia, with Liverpool dates to the 17th, arrived at New York yesterday. A pretty full synopsis of her news will be found under the telegraph head. Breadstuffs were quiet, but steady. The political news is not important.—A very disastrous fire, consuming two millions worth of property, had occurred at Christiana, Norway. There is a pause in the war in China, and nothing later from India. The emancipation of the Russian serfs is nearly completed.

The Kansas question was discussed at great length in both Houses of Congress yesterday, but no result was arrived at before the adjournment. It will probably be settled to-day.

In our Legislature, yesterday, a good deal of business was transacted, and a number of bills passed—among them, the one providing for the enrolment and organization of the Militia of this State. It is now probable that the Legislature will adjourn on the 12th of May.

The New York Market, yesterday, was slightly lower on Wheat and Flour. Money is very abundant at 4@6 per cent. on call, and stocks are rising. In our market, there was an active demand for both Wheat and Flour, and considerable transactions at full figures.

The weather, yesterday, was almost like summer—a warm south-west wind blowing throughout the day. Vegetation begins to advance rapidly, and the gardens and court yards about the city are fast assuming a bright green livery.

The Appeal of Mr. Strong.

We give up a large share of our columns this morning to an elaborate defence, by MOSES M. STRONG, Esq., of his conduct before the Assembly and the Investigating Committee. Mr. STRONG is an astute lawyer, and an able man, and feeling, no doubt, that his course on the occasion referred to has placed him in a false position, he has exerted all his ingenuity to make the worse appear the better reason. We think, however, that he utterly fails to convict the Assembly, or the Committee of any wrong, or to vindicate his own action in the premises. As for his slurs upon the Supreme Court, the Members of the Investigating Committee and the political majority in the Legislature, they are prompted by strong partizan feelings, and are not, therefore, entitled to much consideration, nor do they need reply. The Legislature was in the exercise of an undoubted right, in ordering the Investigation, and Mr. STRONG, in refusing to testify before the Committee, was indisputably guilty of contempt and properly punished.

THE STREET COMMISSIONERS.—An anonymous correspondent, in the News of yesterday, accuses the Street Commissioners of disregarding the Charter in letting contracts, making repairs, &c. We are assured that the charges are unfounded. A communication on the subject is deferred till our next.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.—On and after Monday next, two trains per day will run over the Milwaukee and Horicon Railroad to Berlin, connecting at that place with the company's line of steamers on the Fox and Wolf rivers and Lake Winnebago. Trains leave here at 7 A. M. and 2 P. M.; arrive from Berlin at 12:15 and 7:20 P. M.

IS THERE ANY TRUTH IN IT?—There is a rumor that the Illinois Central Railroad Company has bought out the La Crosse Railroad land grant and all. How much truth is in it, we can't say. Madison Argus.

There is no truth whatever in the story.—The La Crosse Company are not disposed to sell, nor the Illinois Central able to buy, the La Crosse R. R. Land Grant and all.

DINNER AT THE HYATT HOUSE, JANESVILLE.—Gen. MCMANMAN, the new landlord of the "Hyatt House," celebrates the re-opening of that Hotel, under his auspices, by a grand dinner on Wednesday next, the 5th day of May.—He hopes to welcome a good many of his Milwaukee friends on this occasion.

PERSONAL.—Mr. STANTON, the newly elected President of the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. Co., arrived in our city, yesterday, and is lodged at the Newhall House.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE.

SENATE—27th, 7½ P. M.

Bills Introduced.—Petitions of members of Bar of Racine county asking that the fees of clerks be not reduced. Resolution that when Senate adjourn at noon it will be to meet again at half past 2 o'clock P. M., and the evening sessions be discontinued.

Bills Passed.—To provide for the incorporation of Savings Institutions. To repeal all acts or parts of acts authorizing the county of Columbia, or any city, town or village therein credit to R. R. Co. To amend chap. 99 revised statutes relating to printing—Laid on the table.—To protect the people against the money power by limiting the rate of interest.

The Senate went into Committee of the Whole on general file, Senator Clark in the Chair, rose and reported and adjourned.

SENATE—29, 9 A. M.

Resolutions instructing committee on legislative expenditures to report a bill for the payment of newspapers. The resolution to expel Senator Campbell was considered, but was postponed till to-morrow morning to hear report of the minority.

Senator Davis made a report against the Capitol enlargement, and to his work of the same.

Senator Proudfit submitted a minority report on the same subject.

Five hundred of both reports were ordered printed.

Bills passed.—To authorize a re-organization of the trustees of the deaf and dumb asylum; to revise the charter of the Janesville, Beloit and Fulton R. R.; two bills to legalize State roads; several appropriation bills.

The Senate then went into Committee of the Whole, on the revised statutes. Adjourned till 7½ P. M.

MADISON, April 28th, 7½ P. M.

Assembly.—Sundry reports submitted.

Bills Passed—Providing for the organization enrolling and discipline of the Militia of this State; Memorial to Congress to limit jurisdiction of U. S. Courts; to appropriate certain sums of money to the Regents of Normal Schools; to authorize the printing of the Land Grant Investigating report.

MADISON, April 29, 9½ A. M.

ASSEMBLY.—A resolution to adjourn to May 3d, sine die—was amended by making it the 12th.

Bills Introduced—To organize the 12th Judicial Circuit and to fix the time of holding courts in the counties therein. To repeal so much of chap. 131 of revised statutes as relates to the fees of printers.

Bills Passed—To incorporate the Wisconsin and Hemlock River Horse R. R. Co.; to provide for keeping insane persons; to incorporate Workmen's Relief Association of Watertown.

The rest of the forenoon was principally occupied in discussing bills. Adjourned till 7½ P. M.

RENTS AND BUGGY FOR SALE.—J. S. Fillmore has a house on Prospect street, at $180. Also one on Milwaukee st. at $350. A good buggy for sale cheap. Also brick house on Jefferson street at $600.

Common Council Proceedings.

MAYOR PRENTISS, PRESIDING.

On Wednesday evening a meeting of the Councillors was held, and last evening of the Board of Aldermen.

At the meeting of the Councillors, after the transaction of some preliminary business, His Honor, the Mayor, read the following, showing the present

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE CITY.

To the Common Council:—

It is made my duty to give you such information, and to make such recommendations from time to time, as may be deemed advantageous to a proper administration of the City Government. In this communication, however, I do not intend to propose any measures for your consideration; my object being now to give a true statement, in as concise a form as possible, of the present liabilities, and financial condition of the city, leaving any recommendations I may see fit to make for some future occasion.

LIABILITIES ON CITY BONDS.

The Bonds issued for Municipal purposes, and now outstanding, amount to $756,850.

Of this amount there has been issued

For School Houses,	$ 75,000
" do Sinking Fund,	100,000
" Fire Loan,	11,350
" Funded Debt,	35,500
" do Sinking Fund,	165,000
" Harbor,	111,000
" do Sinking Fund,	73,000
" Dredging,	13,000
" do Sinking Fund,	37,000
" Bridges,	30,000
" do Sinking Fund,	20,000
" Second Ward,	50,000
	$671,850
In Juneau Bank, as collateral for loan of $30,000,	$50,000
Issued, but not disposed of, (on hand,)	35,000
	$756,850

SCHOOLS.

Warrants have been drawn on the School Fund during the year ending 31st March last, to the amount of $23,430 00; of that amount there was expended for teachers' salaries $17,925 87, and for contingencies $6,482 13, making $23,408 00. This expenditure exceeds the amount of the School Fund for 1857 some $1,600, and I am informed by the Secretary of the Board of School Commissioners that the amount overdrawn for the past and present years, is about $4,000.

RAIL ROADS.

Bonds have been issued to aid in the construction of Rail Roads to the amount of $1,614,000 00, as follows:

To the Fond du Lac & Mil. R. R. Co.		$114,000 00
" " Green Bay Mil. & Chi.	"	200,000 00
" " La Crosse & Milwaukee,	"	200,000 00
" " Milwaukee & Watertown,	"	200,000 00
" " Milwaukee & Horicon,	"	166,000 00
" " Milwaukee & Mississippi,	"	534,000 00
" " Milwaukee & Beloit,	"	100,000 00
" " Milwaukee & Superior,	"	100,000 00
Total,		$1,614,000 00

The securities which are now held by the city for the issue of those bonds to the several Rail Road Companies above mentioned, are stated in detail in an exhibit which is herewith submitted, and to which I refer you for further information.

Of the above mentioned bonds the sum of Thirty-five thousand and five hundred dollars of the principal, and Seven thousand six-hundred and seventy-five dollars of interest thereon, is past due and $38,870,00 of principal and interest to become due in the course of the fiscal year, ending March 31st, 1859. There are also bills payable outstanding against the city and past due which amount to nearly $138,000,00 and other bills payable which mature in September, amounting to over Seventeen hundred dollars.—It will be seen therefore that the bonded debt, interest, and bills payable to be met and provided for previous to April 1st, 1859, exceed the sum of Two hundred and six-thousand dollars.—In addition to the indebtedness above mentioned there are outstanding warrants on the Treasurer amounting to Sixty thousand dollars and upwards; and claims against the city for improvements made during the past year, and other expenses to a large amount for which appropriations have not been made.

RESOURCES.

The City and Ward Taxes levied in 1857, amount to the sum of	$304,089,44
Special do., for cleaning streets, alleys and sidewalks,	8,474,25
Street Commissioners certificates,	253,962,69
	$566,325,38
Of the general City and Ward Taxes there was paid up to April 17th,	$78,000,00
do. Special April 17th,	20,000,00
	$98,000,00
Leaving up to April 17th, 1858,	$468,325,38

The Treasurer has in his hands old tax Certificates on sales of lots, and on parcels of land, from 1850 to 1856 inclusive amounting to $148,182,99.

Of these certificates $32,240,08 belongs to the city, and the remainder are held for the benefit of parties interested.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The expenditures in the Fire Department during the past year amount to the sum of	$24,396 27
Of which there has been paid for lot in Second Ward for Hook & Ladder Co. No 2,	1,300 00
For notes given for ½ lot 10 in block 16, 3d ward,	3,500 00
For lot in 7th Ward, Main street,	10,000 00
For Engine No. 6, (Button)	2,500 00
For current expenses,	7,096 27
	$24,396 27

The Fire Department now comprises eleven Companies, making about six hundred and fifty active members. Ten of these companies are tolerably well supplied with apparatus and operate with great efficiency at fires. A report in detail of the present condition and wants of the Department will soon be made by the Chief Engineer, which will be laid before you.

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

The expenses in this department for salaries of Chief of Police and Assistants, have exceeded eighteen thousand dollars for the past year. On the 16th of the present month I directed the Assistant force to be reduced to eighteen men, to take effect on and after the 18th inst. The order was complied with by discharging nine Policemen from service, and the expenses of the department under the compensation recently established have thereby been lessened more than fifty per cent. The force, in my opinion, was unnecessarily large, and deeming it my imperative duty, under the present state of the finances of the city, to cut off all unnecessary expenditures, when it could be done with a proper regard to the condition and safety of our citizens, I exercised the power given me by the charter and ordinances as above stated.

WILLIAM A. PRENTISS,
Mayor.

Councillor Hadley reported a code of laws and by-laws for the government of the Boards of Councillors and Aldermen, and when met in joint convention both branches, which were unanimously adopted.

Councillor Tesch moved that 200 copies be ordered printed for the use of both Boards, which was amended at the suggestion of Councillor McCormick by making the number four, instead of two hundred, and adopted.

Councillor Waldo proposed the appointment of a messenger for the Council, and offered a resolution to that effect, which, after some discussion was withdrawn.

A resolution that the Clerk be authorized to procure a book of city orders, and not the orders from the stubs, was adopted.

A resolution offered by Councillor Hadley to appoint a Committee to confer with the Mayor and Comptroller, in relation to the indebtedness of the city, and to devise means to maintain the credit, was adopted.

After the transaction of some miscellaneous business, the Board adjourned.

Meeting of the Board of Aldermen Last Night.

The Board of Aldermen met last night. All the members present The Mayor called the Board to order. The code of rules adopted by the Board of Councillors at their last meeting was read, and their adoption recommended.—After some discussion upon one or two of the rules, the whole was concurred in as adopted by the Councillors.

The Chair announced the appointment of the following Committees:

1. Finance—Aldermen Dousman and Devos.
2. Judiciary—Ald. Phelps and Carroll.
3. School—Ald. Lindwurm and Plankinton.
4. Police—Ald. Neiderman and Daggett.
5. Fire Department—Ald. Daggett and Lindwurm.
6. Printing—Keogh and Dousman.
7. Licenses—DeVos and Carroll.
8. Rail Roads—Phelps and Keogh.
9. Harbor—Plankinton and DeVos.
10. Old Taxes—Lindwurm and Neiderman.
11. Gas Light—Carroll and Plankinton.
12. Bridges—Daggett and Phelps.
13. Plats—Lindwurm and Keogh.

Which appointments were unanimously concurred in by the Board.

Various petitions and accounts were presented and referred to appropriate Committees. The Mayor then read to the Board a statement of the present financial condition of the city, which on motion of Alderman Dousman was placed on record.

A communication from the City Clerk was read submitting to the board the various matters which came before the Board of Councillors for their consideration.

The resolution authorizing the City Clerk to procure a book of blank city orders, elicited a lengthy discussion.

Ald. Plankinton submitted an amendment to the resolution, to add the words, "to draw interest at ten per cent per annum," to the blank orders, which was amended by Ald. Phelps so as to read "seven per cent," instead of ten.

Ald. Plankinton's amendment was then put and lost by a vote of four to five. A vote was then taken on the original resolution adopted by the Councillors, and it was carried almost unanimously. Other measures of the Board of Councillors were generally concurred in by the Aldermen; after which the Board adjourned.

CIRCUIT COURT—JUDGE MCARTHUR PRESIDING.—In the case of the State of Wisconsin against William Johnson indicted for pocket picking, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and the defendant sentenced to the State Prison for two years. It will be remembered that Johnson was arrested for picking a woman's pocket in Wall's auction store of $1,50. He was one of those fellows who make this discription of thieving their exclusive business, several of whom infect our streets just now.

In the case of James McMullen indicted for stealing from the office of the Relief Society, the defendant was found not guilty and acquitted.

In the case of the State against William Newell, indicted for robbing a pedlor's wagon at Hale's Corners, the defendant was found not guilty and discharged. This result, as well it might, has created general surprise amongst those who heard anything of the charges against the defendant. We did not hear the testimony, but the general impression was that no doubt could exist as to the guilt of the defendant. The stolen goods amounting to nearly $800 worth, were found in his house, together with a vast deal of other stolen property.

Yesterday the following civil cases were disposed of: H. Mabbett et al vs. H. L. Palmer. Judgment for the plaintiffs $220,66.

F. H. Bock et al vs. S. S. Conover, replevin, verdict for the plaintiffs.

J. Downer vs M. Schoeffler. Judgment for the plaintiff, damages $150,73.

H. A. Nichols, vs Loaman Reed, et al. Judgment for the plaintiff for $1,959,20.

James Brackett, et al vs James W. Averil.—Judgment for the plaintiffs for $4,465,00.

James Maims et al vs Jackson Hadley. Judgment for the plaintiff for $122,63.

Wm. Brunquest, vs J. W. Stearns, et al trial proceeding.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—James Richards, disorderly, fined $1. Mathew Doody, intoxicated and disorderly, fined $3. Charles McKenzie, do, fined $4 and costs. Timothy O'Brien (not "Tim") was sent to the county jail for 20 days, in default of $10 fine, for being drunk and disorderly. Bell Whipple, Joseph Rister and John Rister, were brought up on a charge of being disorderly, but discharged by order of the City Attorney, their offence being of a very trivial nature. Owen Linden was convicted of an assault and battery, and fined $5 and costs, the lowest penalty which the law allows, his offence being merely a technical breach of the peace.

IMPORTANT TO GENTLEMEN.—Those of our masculine readers who appreciate the merits of a neatly fitting, well got up shirt, are referred to the advertisement of Mrs. SHANKS, in this morning's Sentinel. She not only makes shirts, drawers, dressing gowns, &c., of the best pattern and materials, but takes in washing of every description, and does up linen in superior style. Her charges are very moderate and her work warranted to please.

☞ This morning the sale of furniture at the dwelling house, No. 355 Main street, takes place by C. Wall, auctioneer.

FOR BUFFALO.—The propeller Mendota leaves for Buffalo this morning. For passage apply to Griffin & Burns, foot of East Water street.

MILITARY.—Company "B," of the Milwaukee Light Guard, have a Company Parade this morning. The members are notified to meet at their Armory at half past 10 o'clock.

SASH.

ALL SIZES, (20,000 lights,) for sale cheap for cash, by H. J. NAZRO & CO.

COMMERCIAL.

Milwaukee Market.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE, April 30, 1858.

Received by M. & M. R. R., April 29—417 bbls flour, 10,294 bus wheat, 550 bus oats, 23 bus potatoes, 25 bus rye, 200 bus barley, 4 bbls beef, 8 bbls eggs, 2,530 lbs pork, 1,410 lbs shot, 4,040 lbs hides, 2 cars stone, 8,920 lbs sundries.

By Mil. & Wat. R. R.—43 bbls flour, 2,051 bus wheat, 84 bus potatoes, 7,328 lbs hides, 2,270 lbs sundries.

Receipts larger, yesterday, and produce market active Buyers appear to be more plenty, and with increasing receipts of grain, we have to report a brisker market than for some time past. Previous prices were fully sustained, yesterday, with more numerous operations. The demand for oats continues lively, with light receipts, and we quote to-day an advance of one cent on good qualities. We quote:

FLOUR—Firm, and rather more activity in the market. Sales, yesterday, of 180 bbls "Markesan," 400 bbls "Empire," 245 bbls "City," (both Beaver Dam,) 124 bbls "Cold Spring," 300 bbls "Cedarburgh," 152 bbls "McCracken," 167 bbls "Danville," and 160 bbls "Rowell" and "Kewaskum," all spring extras, at $3,50 on board; 160 bbls "Columbia" red winter at $4; 200 bbls same brand white winter extra at $4 25; 450 bbls "Kewascum" white winter extra, on board, at $4,50.

WHEAT—The market was active, yesterday, and good samples went off readily at our figures. We quote extra club in good demand at 65@67. Sales of 500, 400, 357 and 119 bags, and, doubtless, many others that we did not hear of, at 67c, and 123 bags at 66½, and 400 do at 65½. The demand for good qualities of winter wheat continues lively. We note sales of 72 bags white at 86, and 44 bags mixed at 76c. In inferior qualities there is little doing.

FREIGHTS—Lower on flour, and unchanged for wheat. The schooner T. Baker takes wheat and flour to Buffalo at 4c and 18c. The schr. Moselle also takes wheat at 4c to the same port.

RYE—Wanted at 50@53c.

BARLEY—Dull, and transactions limited at 30@40c.

OATS—Receipts are small, and with an increasing demand prices have advanced a trifle. Good samples are quickly taken at 26@27c.

CORN—Remains quiet at 30@38c.

BEANS—Dull at 50@62½c.

TIMOTHY SEED—Less active at $1,25@1,33.

POTATOES—Plenty and dull; prices declining. Best lots sell from 20 to 25c.

PORK—Receipts limited and demand lively, at $6 for dressed hogs.

BUTTER—In fair request at 12½@14 for good firkin, and 15@18c for fresh roll and good to choice.

HIDES—In demand, at 5@6c for green, and 10@12½ for dry.

Weather, yesterday, extremely warm for the season, with pretty certain indications of a thunder storm towards evening. General business improving.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 29.

FLOUR—The Arabia's accounts have a depressing effect upon the flour market, and prices have declined 5c, with a strong downward tendency; sales 9,000 bbls at 4,20a4,25 for super state, the latter an outside price; 4,35a4,45 for extra state, 4,20a4,30 for super western, 4,35a4,35 for common to medium extra do, and 4,50a4,65 shipping brands round hoop Ohio; closing heavy. Canadian flour dull and rather easier; sales 6,000 bbls at 4,30a4,35 for super, 4,40a5,50 for extra. Rye flour heavy; sales 200 bbls at 3a3,50.

WHEAT—Prices tending downwards; sales 10,000 bush at 1,12a1,16 for red Southern, 1,20 for white do; Chicago spring held at 90 on the spot, 92 to arrive, with buyers at 90a91.

BARLEY—Dull at 60a65; sales 8,000 bush prime barley malt at 80.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

☞ The Chicago Press says:

"A number of vessels loaded with grain left yesterday afternoon for different ports below. It is probable many of them will lay up on arriving at their destination, as no first class vessel can pay expenses at present rates of freight."

☞ From a letter received by A. T. Spencer & Co., the Chicago Press learns that the steamer Lady Elgin was at Copper Harbor from the 22d to the 24th, during which time it was blowing hard, with heavy driving snow. Lake Superior is reported two feet lower than last year, in consequence of which the Elgin had to be lightered before she was able to pass over St. George flats.

☞ The schooner J. W. Brown, Capt. Downs, in attempting to make the port of Erie about ten days since, went ashore high and dry north of the Beacon Light, where, in all probability, she would have yet remained, had it not been for the prompt and efficient aid of the steamer Michigan, through the gentlemanly courtesy of Commander Lanman, seconded by the sturdy heart of her weather beaten pilot, Capt Hinton. Such acts of disinterested generosity on the part of those connected with our Government service, cannot fail in the end of securing a corresponding reward.—Exchange.

The Kangaroo sailed for New York on the 14th. The Arabia on her outward passage reached Liverpool on the 11th.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Both Houses met on Monday. After the recess in the Commons, Lord John Russel proposed that the Government, instead of proceeding with their Indian bill, should move certain resolutions in committee of the whole, relative to the Government of Hindostan, which was agreed to by Mr. D'Israeli.

In the Lords on the 15th, Malmesbury laid on the table the correspondence with France and the subject of passports, and explained the steps to investigate the annoyance attendant upon the system.

In the Commons notice was given of a bill to abolish the property qualifications now required to be held by members of the House.

On the 16th, in the Commons, D'Israeli announced that the law officers of the crown were unanimous that the imprisonment of the engineers of the Cagliari by the Neapolitan Government was illegal, and that a demand had been made for compensation.

No decision had been come to in regard to the international question involved in the affair.

The Duke de Malakoff, the new ambassador from France, landed at Dover on the 15th inst., and met with a civic and military reception.—Three guards of honor were on duty.

In reply to an address from the corporation of Dover, he said it would be his earnest desire to preserve the cordial relations which have hitherto existed between France and England.—He traveled to London in a state railway carriage.

The trial of G. Bernard, for complicity with Orsini and others, was expected to terminate on the 17. The counsel for the defence had made a powerful appeal to the anti-Napoleon prejudices of his auditors. The speech elicited tremendous applause in the Court.

FRANCE.—It is rumored that Count de Morny or Persigny would soon replace Gen. Espinasse as Minister of Interior.

The elections to the Legislature will take place in Paris on the 26th, but nothing definite was known as to the purpose of the Republicans.

The three Government candidates have been announced.

The four opposition members of the Legislature had been invited to dine at the Tuilleries, but all except one declined.

ITALY.—The Sardinian officers, who were on leave in foreign countries, have been re called. France and England have agreed not to support Sardinia in any act of aggression to which the quarrel may lead her.

AUSTRIA.—Much suffering still exists in the principal manufacturing districts. The extensive shipments usually made, have ceased for eight months.

RUSSIA.—The emancipation of serfs had become general. An important conspiracy is said to have been crushed in Circassia.

The rebels under Neenah Sahib's brother were in strong force at Bundlecund.

Commissioner Yeh was at Calcutta, and would be kept under surveillance until further orders.

Sir Hugh Ross's movement had caused a great panic among the rebels in the Chumbun District and in the Territory of the Rajah of Bankore, and that part of the country had been abandoned by the rebels.

The Rajahs possessions had been confiscated.

CHINA.—The four great powers have allowed the Emperor till the 8th of March to send his Plenipotentiary to Shanghai, and in the mean time suspended all belligerent preceedings.

The elders of Tatsham had declared that the arming of the country around Canton was only as a defence against the rebels who threatened the city.

NORWAY.—Three fourths of the city of Christiana has been burned with a loss of 10,000,000 francs.

INDIA.—There is no later news but some additional items had been telegraphed from Malta.—Sir Colin Campbell remained at Lucknow restoring quiet and organizing the garrison.

The fugitives from Oude to the eastward were threatened in Gornchapore and a regiment had been sent there.

The hill fort of Chumdare had been stormed and taken by the British.

No change had occurred in the London money market.

Sir Geo. Hodgkinson & Co., ship owners and Brokers of London, had suspended, but their liabilities were only £24,000.

Consols closed steady at 96⅜ a 96½. Money 96⅞ a 96¾ for account.

The Bank returns show a decrease of £4,000 in specie.

Cotton had been dull at Liverpool, and prices were ⅛ a ¼d per pound lower.

LIVERPOOL MARKET.—The Liverpool breadstuff market is quiet, and all articles without change.

Prices—Beef, nominally without change; though for secondary lower prices would be accepted.

Pork—Market, cleared for first hands, and dealers ask a slight advance.

Bacon—Dull and unchanged.

Lard—Opened buoyantly; but closed quiet, 54sa55s.

Tallow—In rather better demand at full prices.

Ashes—Active and buoyant at 36sa38s.

Advices from all commercial centres of the continent describe a stagnation of business, and a general exercise of caution.

Arrival of the Empire City at N. Y.

NEW YORK, April 29.

The steamship Empire City has arrived from New Orleans, via Havana 23rd.

Considerable excitement had prevailed among certain classes at Havana, in consequence of reports that a Swedish or Belgian Brig, which had put into Mantanzas, had been dismasted by a British cruiser, and that the schooner Cortez, bound on a legal voyage to the coast of Africa, had been unwarrantably detained off Cardenas, or Matanzas, by a British cruiser. The reports are thought to be exaggerated.

More slave cargoes had been landed on the northern coast of Cuba, and two cargoes of coolies had arrived at Havana.

The steamship Empire City experienced a typhoon on the 26th.

The special correspondence of the Commercial Advertiser says that Lafragua, the Mexican minister, to Madrid, had been ordered by Zuologa to resign, but refuses. The Spanish Government, however, decline further intercourse with Lafragua.

WASHINGTON, April 29.

HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the Kansas report.

Mr. Cox, of Ohio, defined his position. He was the first in the House to oppose the Lecompton Constitution. After a careful consideration of his duty to party, State and the Union, and the welfare of the whole people, he had come to the deliberate conclusion to support the report of the Committee. Mr. Cox then, according to the arrangement with Mr. Clingman, of N. C., renewed the latter's demand for the previous question.

Mr. Marshall, of Ky., and Mr. Campbell, of Ohio asked to be heard. The latter claiming the same privilege for his side of the Ohio delegation, as was accorded to Mr. Cox.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, said the report was not all he desired, but substantially was what he claimed.

He was proceeding to give his reasons why he should vote for it, when Mr. Clingman interrupted, saying the demand for the previous question had been renewed.

Many gentlemen arose, and claimed in the name of justice to be heard.

Mr. Garnett, of Va., said he should move for a postponement, but the time named by him was lost in cries of "Order! " Order! "

Mr. Campbell moved for a call of the House—refused by 90, against 119.

The question was then stated to be on the demand for the previous question.

Mr. Marshall, of Ky, again attempted unsuccessfully, to ask that the demand be withdrawn, saying that he wished to say a few words.

Mr. Garnett inquired whether, if the demand was omitted, how it would be in order for him to move the postponement of the subject till a week from Tuesday.

The Speaker replied in the affirmative.

The demands for the previous question was put and negatived, 103 against 108.

Mr. Marshall, of Kentucky got the floor.

Mr. Marshall rose for the first time since the subject of Kansas was introduced, to open his mouth in relation to it. The report was the original front of the Kansas Nebraska bill.—What a spectacle is presented to the American people when their representatives are engaged in a measure, the authors of which do not and cannot understand its meaning whether or not it submits the Lecompton Constitution. One of the managers, Stipkins, yesterday emphatically declared the principle of non-submission, while another, English, maintained the Constitution submitted.

Mr. English replied that the bill was drawn in good English. (Laughter, &c.)

Mr. English wanted to know on what authority Mr. Marshall made that statement. He called on him to name the time and place.

Mr. Marshall replied that it was an inference drawn from his remarks, and asked Mr. English whether he understood the report the way that Mr. Stephens did, viz: that the constitution was not to be submitted.

Mr. English judged the gentlemen was competent to judge the meaning of the words in the bill.

Mr. M. responded that, if that was all the answer Mr. English had to give, he was willing it should go to the country with the declaration, that the authors of the report were divided as to it meaning. When Mr. Cox spoke this morning, he was reminded of the old hymn "why should we mourn departed friends, or shake at deaths alarms, 'tis but the voice of party sounds to bear him to its arms." Excessive laughter.

Mr. Lawrence merely responded, "While the lamp holds out to burn, the vilest sinner may return." (Laughter.)

Mr. Marshall—That may be the gentleman's epitaph.

Mr. Cox—Where is the party to which you invited us? Was it the Black Republican Party or the American party?

Mr. C.—The compromise now offered is just the compromise as our fathers who framed the Constitution did. I made a concession, but when I see substance I will not return after the shadow.

Mr. M., resuming, said he was not here to impugn the motives or challenge the position any gentleman had taken.

Mr. Cox wished to know whether Mr. Marshall had charged that he had changed. He had from the time of the report of the committee, had the matter under consideration.

He sustained the report as the very best that could be obtained under the circumstances, but did not say that it conformed to his very best judgment. Mr. M, believed that the report substantially submitted the constitution to a vote of the people of Kansas. He also objected to the manner of its submission, and believed they would reject the proposition and the condition attached to it which was so degrading to the North—so help him God. If he was a Northern man he would open the direct attack upon it; he would have the report of the committee laid on the table, and another committee of conference appointed. Strike out the disabling section, and it would come near enough to the Crittenden Montgomery amendment for him to vote for it.

He made an allusion to the position of the Republican party on the Kansas measure, when Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, said he agreed with every statement Mr. Marshall had uttered. The republicans voted for it with their eyes open, they distinctly understood that certain gents from the Free States, pledged them their faith and honor, that they only wanted a plain honest straightforward opportunity, and a fair and honest chance to end the question.

Mr. Giddings said he was about the last to agree to the Crittenden Montgomery amendments and he assured the gent, that his only inducement to go for it, was that he understood that every gent belonging to the Douglas wing of the democracy stood pledged to his co-workers to stand by them to the last.

When Mr. Giddings finished, he was seized with a fainting fit and was conducted from the hall but soon afterwards returned and took his seat apparently recovered.

Mr. Barnett, of Kentucky, endeavored to ask Mr. Marshall, of Ky., a question, but the latter declined to yield the floor.

Mr. Marshall explained why he had been found voting with the Republicans, and tendered to that party his tribute of thanks for their patriotism. In conclusion he quoted a remark of the Richman South newspaper,

That no more slave States shall come into the Union, was the issue; the people of the South will listen to no such clamor. He exerted himself to get the republican members to vote as they did, with an eye to the fact that there were disunion platforms which that vote would close over forever.

Mr. Hughes demanded the previous question. Not seconded—99 against 105.

Mr. Garnett moved that the further consideration of the subject be postponed until the second Tuesday in May.

Mr. Jones, of Texas, was tired of this mode of proceeding, and with a view to bring up the question directly, moved to lay the subject on the table as a test question. The motion was disagreed to—101 against 113.

Mr. Jones said the vote just taken showed that the majority were not against the bill, and moved the previous question, which the House refused to second, 103 against 107.

Mr. Garnett now wanted a vote taken on his motion, to postpone to the 2d Tuesday of May. (Cries from the Republican side, agreed.)

Mr. Seward asked Mr. Garnett what he expected to accomplish by a postponement. The conduct of the House, relative to the Kansas bill, would, as it deserved, meet the condemnation of the people of the entire country. Was it not known that every species of delay had been resorted to to-day by the Republicans, some southern men and others, to prevent a vote.

Mr. Harris, of Ill., asked whether he understood the gent from Ga. to say that the delay was chargeable to those who opposed the bill.—Mr. S. replied, I think, to a very great extent by both parties. (Laughter.) Mr. Harris desired to say that from the 2d day of February, when the President sent in his special message, till now, whenever those who have sustained Lecompton found themselves beaten, they always resorted to parliamentary tactics and side motions, and to them the delay is chargeable. Mr. S. entered a solemn protest against all such proceedings, come from what quarter they may, and urged an immediate vote on the Kansas report. Mr. Keitt, of S. C., argued against delay. We must have prompt action if we expect to pass all the appropriation bills and adjourn at the time fixed.

Mr. Garnett believed that the discussion of the measure was due alike to its friends and foes, because it was widely different from that sent from the Committee of Conference, and hence, at the suggestion of his friends, he had moved a postponement.

Mr. Barksdale—Have you not made up mind as to how you shall vote.

Mr. Garnett replied that he hadn't. When he once made up his mind as to what way he should vote for it, though every other man was on the other side, he would preserve his position.

Mr. Wright, of Tenn., could see no reason for postponement because five or six gentlemen wanted time to make up their minds.

Mr. Wilson, of Va., said the policy of Marshal was to endeavor to stir up the minds of the North, and produce the impression that a great injury is attempted to be perpetrated against Northern sentiment and interest. This he denied, and at length defended the report of the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Quitman opposed this measure because it contained a concession on the Slavery question which he, as a Southern man, was not prepared to make.

He desired the issue to be brought to final determination before the North and the South, if they cannot do that they ought to separate, besides he regarded the act of the people of Kansas as complete and binding, and was against the bill because it proposed to submit the Lecompton Constitution to the people.

On motion of Mr. Letcher, of Va., the House by 122 against 82, adjourned.

SENATE—The Senate refused, 22 against 18 to recede from its amendment, striking out the provision for the payment of reporters, and Sec. 3rd of the House Deficiency Bill; and on motion of Mr. Toombs, a committee of conference was appointed.

The report of the committee of conference on the Kansas bill was taken up.

Mr. Douglas objected to the Kansas Conference substitute, because it did not submit the Lecompton Constitution fairly to the people, but made their admission virtually contingent on their acceptance or rejection of the land grants. He objected, too, to the offer of a bribe to come in with 40,000 population.

Mr. Brown, of Miss., addressed the Senate in favor of the Conference substitute, describing it as a peace measure with healing on its wings.

Mr. Toombs warmly supported the Conference substitute, denying that any bribe of land was offered. On the contrary, the Committee refused to give Kansas the seventeen million acres which she asked.

Mr. Walson replied to Mr. T. In preference to seventeen million acres, a direct bribe was offerred of hundreds of thousands of acres and of dollars. 200,000 acres of public lands are advertised to be sold on the 1st of July, and here is a direct bribe of 5 per cent. on the sales, amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars offered, if Kansas will come into the Union before the 1st of July.

Mr. Seward read some paragraphs from the Washington correspondent of the Tribune, in which incidents having occurred in the committee of conference were related mainly correct in facts, but colored to convey the erroneous impression that Mr. Green coerced with Messrs. Seward and Howard.

Mr. Seward exhonerated Mr. Green, whereupon Mr. Green returned the courtesy by moving to adjourn, which, Mr. Seward being slightly indisposed, was glad to hear.

Messrs. Broderick and Seward speak to-morrow, which closes the debate. The vote will probably be taken at 3 o'clock.

MILWAUKEE:
FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 30.

How the Pension Lists are Used.—The Washington correspondent of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, relates the following circumstance, as illustrative of the carelessness with which important matters are attended to in our Government offices. This is not a solitary instance, we presume, but every administration has sins of the same kind to bear:

"I heard, a day or two since, of an occurrence which is a capital illustration of the management of the public offices in this city. One of the auditors in the department has charge of all the militia rolls of the country; that is, a list of the names of all the officers and soldiers engaged in the war of 1812, and the Revolutionary war.—When a party applies for a pension, these rolls are consulted, and if his name is not found, his claim falls to the ground. Not long since, as the auditor came into his department, he noticed that his fire was not lighted. The kindling paper attracted his attention, and he pulled it out from behind the wood which was upon it. Judge his surprise when he saw that it was one of the militia rolls, which should have been left on file. Upon examining into the matter, he found that the servant had been frequently in the habit of making his fires with these rolls, which he had abstracted from the chest in the department for that purpose. How many applicants for pensions have been reported "no rolls," by lazy clerks, on account of this defalcation, I do not know but this shows the carelessness which results from the present system of filling clerkships and lower offices by men not always fit for their posts, but because of political service."

Arrest of a Negro at Detroit on a Requisition from the Governor of Wisconsin.—The Free Press of the 27th says that Tuttle & Champ, private detectives, arrested a negro named Wm. Talbot on Sunday, on a requisition from the Governor of Wisconsin. He is charged with committing the crime of rape on a young girl in Beloit, Wis., in October last, in which place he had been a resident for several years. He broke into the house of Mr. Benjamin Brown in the night time, and committed or attempted to commit, the crime. Being detected at it, he fled the country, and has since been in concealment. The Sheriff of the county in which the crime was committed ascertained that he was in this part of the country, and came on here last fall and made a strict search, which, however, was unsuccessful. He then left the matter in hands of Messrs. Champ and Tuttle, who ascertained that he was at Wyandotte, engaged in a barber shop as a journeyman barber. This secret was divulged by a white woman with whom he had become intimate. The officers went down there, but, his suspicions having become aroused, he had left for other parts. Since that time the same officers have been on the look-out, having searched numerous dens in the city in the operation, and on Sunday found him at some coal pits several miles out on the Pontiac road. He confessed his guilt and acknowledged his name upon being brought to the office of Messrs. Tuttle & Champ, after which he was lodged in jail to await the arrival of an officer from Beloit.

Legislative Duties.—The Baltimore Clipper contains the following Washington gossip:

The marriage of Miss Toombs to Mr. Du Bose was a splendid affair. The sumptuous character which ladies' costume has of late assumed has seldom been so elegantly displayed as in the group of ladies assembled, and the whole effect was one of an interesting and brilliant description. On Friday evening the bride and bridegroom appeared at the opera, and on Saturday had a large reception. Mrs. George Parker gave a brilliant and costly entertainment on Friday evening, which was graced by a brilliant throng, and there have been besides a hotel "hop," and several informal "lancer parties." This week was inaugurated by a party at the spacious mansion of Gen. Cass, which contains so many choice paintings, rare pieces of sculpture, and curious souvenirs de voyage. Miss Bell Cass presides over her father's entertainments with a grace, dignity and affability which are rarely found commingled. Cards are also out for a diplomatic dancing party. Col Seaton, the esteemed junior editor of the National Intelligencer, gave one of his famous Congressional suppers on Thursday evening. Governors Seward and Crittenden were the leading spirits at the sumptuous entertainment, which was crowned by a "feast of reason and a flow of soul." About fifty members, with Lord Napier, Baron Stoekl, and a few other gentlemen, composed the party.

Assault upon a Minister in Church.—A Frenchman named Rhalser, went into a German church at Detroit on Sunday last, and committed an assault upon the pastor, Rev. M. Huff. Before the congregation could interfere the assailant had given the minister a pretty severe thrashing. The cause of the assault, the Rev. gentleman avers was the result of anger engendered by some spiritual admonitions which he had administered to his delinquent parishioners, while the latter declares it was on account of a difference in the settlement of accounts. The Free Press says "he also charges some naughty things to the reverend gentleman, which he has not yet had an opportunity of substantiating.—The latter made complaint before the police court, and the case it to be tried this morning."

A Royal Dog.—Queen Victoria has been presented with a dog born in Pennsylvania, and named Prince. The Queen has, it is said, taken an especial fancy to the happy animal, whose monied value is estimated at 250 guineas. This favored individual of the canine species is but a year old, and his dimensions and abilities are as follows Height, 47 inches; length, 5 feet 9 inches; girth of body, 41 inches; girth of foreleg, 13 inches; girth of neck, 25 inches: weight, over two hundred pounds. Such is his strength, that a man weighing over 200 lbs. may spring upon his back without causing him to flinch.—He has been accustomed to carry a boy on his back; consequently, he requires but little practice to make him a first-rate saddle dog.

Railroad Arrangement Completed.—The arrangement between the Milwaukee and Mississippi and the Galena and Chicago railroads, which we mentioned a few days since, has been completed. As soon as the Y is finished at Bass Creek, which has already been commenced, the cars of the latter company will run to Janesville, on the M. & M. road. The connection with the Galena road will be of great convenience to such of the traveling public as desire a route directly west from this city to the Mississippi river, and to the towns and cities on the Galena & Chicago and Illinois Central railroads. It also forms a more direct connection between this city and the Illinois coal region, from which we anticipate at no distant day important benefits. This connection is one that has long been needed, and will, doubtless, be as beneficial to the railroad companies interested as to the public.—Janesville Gazette.

Australian Heat.—The following is an extract from a private letter, dated Adelaide, Feb. 11, 1848:

"I can assure you we have nearly been roasted alive; we have had ten days and nights of the hottest weather remembered for several years past. The heat at noon in the shade was 136° to 146°, according to situation. and during the night it was never less than 94° to 104° in doors. The hot wind never ceased blowing, and the innumerable deaths from coup de soliel have been appalling in extreme."

☞ Henry Ward Beecher is great at taking up collections. At the old John Street Church, on one occasion, they wanted to make an extra raise. Mr. Beecher eloquently addressed the new converts, and finally asked those who had experienced religion in that church, to hold up their right hand. Nearly all the right hands were raised instantaneously. "Now," says Mr. Beecher, "put that hand in your pocket when the plate is passed round."

APPEAL of Moses M. Strong from the Legislature to the People.

To the People of the State of Wisconsin:

I have been accused of a serious offence—a contempt of the Assembly—have been declared and adjudged guilty without being permitted to plead to the accusation, without any proof of its truth, without any trial, and after a refusal to allow me to be heard. Judgment having been rendered under these circumstances, I was sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for an indefinite period of time, to be determined by certain contingencies, specified in the sentence. At the expiration of one week after the sentence, the Assembly having complied with the conditions proposed by me, I signified my willingness to go before the Investigating Committee, be sworn and testify, and I was thereupon released from my confinement in jail, and placed in the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms, in whose custody I remained until the 22d instant, on my parole.

If I was really guilty of the offence of which I was accused, I have done a most grievous wrong, not only to the people's representatives, but to the people themselves, whose laws I have violated; and I cannot present the apology of ignorance of my duties. If, on the other hand, I was really innocent of the offence of which I was adjudged guilty, the judgment, sentence and imprisonment violated my rights in a manner of which I feel that I have just cause to complain. And, whether guilty or innocent, the mode in which the Assembly arrived at its conclusion—giving me no "right to be heard by myself or counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against me; to meet the witnesses face to face, and to have compulsory process to compel the attendance of witnesses"—was a violation of my constitutional rights (Constitution of Wisconsin, Art. 1, Sec. 7,) to which I may justly except, not only in my own behalf, but in behalf of every citizen of Wisconsin.

The Assembly have adjudged me guilty of a contempt. I declare that I am innocent. We are at issue. There is no appellate tribunal provided by law which can decide this issue. It is true that the Circuit Court has co-ordinate jurisdiction, and I challenge my accusers to present their accusation before that tribunal, and I shall be ready for the trial. But the people of the State are the ultimate and the appropriate judges of all political issues, and believing that they will take sufficient interest in this to warrant my appeal to them, and that they will make up a just verdict, I feel warranted in submitting it to their determination.

In the first place I premise that a false issue was, immediately upon the happening of the events of which I complain, presented by the press of the State to the people, and a wrong motive attributed to my conduct. It was stated by the whole newspaper press of the State, with scarcely an exception, that I had absolutely and unqualifiedly refused to be sworn before the Investigating Committee, and with nearly the same unanimity the motive ascribed to me, was an unwillingness to disclose facts within my knowledge. I do not complain of the press for this. It was the natural result of the course adopted by my accusers. I ask, however, that the people in passing upon this, my appeal, will dismiss from their minds every impression, derived from these sources and give me, what their Representative denied, a fair hearing.

In reference to my willingness to disclose the facts within my knowledge in relation to the alleged frauds and bribery, I never entertained and never expressed the slightest objection to stating all I know, to any person or tribunal, that had any authority to ask such a statement. It is true that I never believed, and do not now believe that the Legislature, or any of its Committees, have any such authority. Nor are my opinions changed by the fact, that the Judges of the Supreme Court have expressed contrary opinions. Their opinions upon political questions have little weight with me. They have furnished too many evidences that under our elective judiciary system, on all political questions, they can be relied on to sustain the party to which they are attached, to entitle their decisions on such questions to much confidence.—And the belief which I entertain, that if the truth is ever arrived at, it will disclose that one of their number (A. D. Smith) received $10,000 of bonds for his agency in effecting the disposition which was made of the Land Grant, is not calculated to increase my confidence in the decision of those Judges upon this question. I intended, however, after the decision was made to submit to it, and so stated on all proper occasions.

I never avoided going before the Committee. On the contrary, I went to Madison on the 25th of January and remained there until the 1st of February. The Committee did not during this time, by subpoena or otherwise, indicate any wish that I should appear before them. My private business rendered it necessary that during the month of February, I should be absent from Madison, and part of the time absent from the State. On the 27th February, while on my way to Madison, I was served with a subpoena to appear before the Committee on the 4th of March. On that day I reported myself to the chairman of the Committee, but the Committee did not call me before them until the 19th of March. I was at all times ready and willing to disclose every thing within my knowledge, pertinent to the investigation, and I refer to my testimony when it shall be published, and the manner in which it is given, as an evidence of the full and explicit answers which I gave to every question propounded to me.

Having stated that a false issue was presented to the people, I now proceed to state what was the true issue.

A short time after the Committee was appointed, a movement was made in the Assembly, to exclude two of its members (Knowlton and Mason) on the simple ground that one was a member of the Legislature in 1856, the other in 1857. This movement failed. It was well understood that the Committee was extremely partizan, and that it was selected by a caucus of the dominant party. With this I find no fault. The republicans had the power, and the responsibility. I do not say that having been a member of the Legislature at either of the sessions when the corrupt acts were alledged to have been committed, did of itself constitute a sufficient reason for excluding any such member from the Committee. But when it is remembered that the Committee was raised to investigate no specific charges against any person in particular, but only vague rumors affecting alike every member of the Legislatures of 1856 and 1857, the selection of any of the members of those sessions to act upon this Committee was a sort of endorsement in advance, that such members were not subject to the imputations, resting by rumor upon others, for it is to be presumed that the republican caucus intended to select pure men, and I feel sure the speaker would not knowingly endorse any others.

I therefore felt, when I went before the committee, that it was entirely proper for me to present charges of corrupt conduct or corrupt motives against any member of the Committee, and to refer to the witnesses by whom I believed such charges might be sustained. Under this impression, which I still entertain, I submitted to the Committee a statement in writing, expressing my belief that Tenney, the Clerk, was "guilty of corrupt conduct as a member of the Legislature of 1857," and referred the Committee to a portion of the evidence in support of it. I also submitted a statement in writing at considerable length, composed in part of matters within my own knowledge, and partly of matters of information and belief, designed, and if believed, calculated to lead to the conclusion that Mr. Knowlton was corrupt, and had acted from corrupt motives as a member of the Legislature of 1856, and also in 1854. The conclusion of this paper was in the following words:

"For the reasons I have stated, and for others which I will state to the Assembly whenever it is proper for me to do so, I believe that Mr. Knowlton is capable of acting, either as a member of the Assembly or of one of its committees, from corrupt motives; that he has acted from corrupt motives in the instances heretofore referred to by me; I believe that he is destitute of any sense of honor which would prevent him from betraying confidence; I know that my testimony will have a tendency to convict him of corrupt conduct as a member of the Legislature of 1856, and that he is directly interested in this investigation, and in suppressing my testimony, or in modifying it so far as it may affect him. I therefore respectfully request that I may be excused from testifying while he is present or is allowed to act as a member of the committee."

I believed those charges could be sustained, and was ready, and still am, to furnish the names of the witnesses at any time when the Legislature might be disposed to investigate them before a Committee of which Mr. Knowlton should not be a member.

I knew the Committee had no power to exclude Mr. Knowlton from acting with them, but I know they had power to exclude Tenney the Clerk, and hoped they would exercise it; and I hoped Mr. Knowlton's sense of propriety would induce him voluntarily to withdraw. These hopes were disappointed. Neither Tenney nor Knowlton voluntarily withdrew, the Committee refused to exclude Tenney, or to excuse me from testifying while they were present. With this action of the Committee I was dissatisfied. It is not material now to enquire whether the action of the Committee was right or wrong, or whether my positions were right or wrong. It is enough that I was sincere, and that my positions were taken in good faith. If so I had a right to the supervisory judgement of the Legislature. The Committee was the creature of the Legislature, and subject in all its action to the superior control of its creator. The Legislature could not only dismiss a Clerk of the Committee, but could discharge any or every one of its members, temporarily or permanently. The Committee having refused to comply with my requests, I was then desirous of presenting them to the Legislature, and of submitting the evidence upon which they were founded, and my reasons in support of them. This was clearly my right, but what was the proper form of expressing it? It was a novel case; the like probably never before occurred. No precedents, existed of the forms of proceeding. In reviewing the matter, now that it is over, and with the advantage of the experience derived from the course which I did pursue, it occurs to me that it would probably have been better, to ask of the Committee time to prepare a written communication to the Legislature, presenting the whole subject for their consideration with the facts and arguments, though I have no idea the Committee would have acceded to such a request, and whether they would or not, such a course did not suggest itself to my mind at the time. Some other form might have been better, to bring these questions before the Assembly. It is much easier to detect our errors in reviewing the past, than to avoid error in adopting a course for the future. In hunter's language "our hind sights are better than our fore sights." I was pressed by the Committee with the question "will you take the oath?" I was compelled to decide and to decide then. I had some objections to the form of the oath. This I presume the Committee would have modified, as they subsequently did, when I was sworn; if they had not, I could have waived them. I could indeed have taken the oath, but this would have been supererogatory unless I intended to testify, and worse, because it would have superadded, my voluntary solemn undertaking to testify. My objection, was to giving any testimony until I could obtain a decision of the Legislature in relation to the validity of the objections I had raised to Messrs. Tenney and Knowlton. Whenever I could obtain that decision, whether it should sustain or overrule my objections, I should have felt it my duty to proceed with my testimony.

The best form which at the time, and in the haste with which I was compelled to act, that occurred to me of presenting these questions for the decision of the Legislature, was to refuse to be sworn, and be thus guilty of a technical contempt. I knew if the committee should certify all the facts in relation to my refusal, that the Assembly would have the charges before them, which I had made, and a clew to the means of sustaining them. I supposed (it seems mistakenly) that I should be permitted to enjoy my constitutional rights; and I knew that if I was, and the committee should treat me so unjustly as to certify the naked fact of my refusal without the explanatory circumstances (which they did) that I could deny the accusation implied, in such a certificate; that my denial would create an issue of fact which the Assembly must try; that upon such trial the evidence would be adduced and I could "be heard." If the Assembly, after a full hearing of the facts and arguments, should have decided adversely to my application, I should cheerfully have yielded my opinions to its judgment, and have gone before the committee, taken the oath, and given my testimony. If, on the contrary, they had sustained my objections, I supposed they would pass a joint resolution to remove, either temporarily or permanently, the obnoxious persons and send it to the Senate. If the Senate had refused to concur, I should have felt it my duty to yield. If they should have concurred, all my objections to being sworn or testifying, would have been entirely removed, and the difficulty been at an end.

I therefore thought proper, for the sole purpose of presenting these questions in a tangible form to the Legislature for their decision; and without the remotest idea of committing any real contempt of the Assembly or of treating it or the committee with the slightest disrespect, to refuse to be sworn and testify, and I then immediately and hastily, in the presence of the committee, drew up and handed to the chairman a paper of which the following is a copy:—

"I respectfully refuse to take the oath tendered me by the committee for the following reasons:

1st. The committee have no constitutional or other authority to require me to take the proposed oath.

2nd. I am unwilling to take such oath while Horace A. Tenney is acting as Secretary or Jas. H. Knowlton as a member of the committee, and I refer to the papers I have already laid before the committee."

If I had been allowed more time for deliberation, I should have omitted the first of the reasons stated, and I regret now, that it was inserted, because it tends to complicate the subject, and renders necessary a statement of the reasons why it was inserted. Up to the moment of preparing and presenting that paper, no word of exception was uttered by me, against the authority of the Committee, and I had never an idea of taking any exception to it, until after their action had, in my judgment, rendered it imperative upon me to take an appeal to the Assembly. Having determined to do that, I should have been justified in submitting my refusal, without reasons, and in relying upon the justice of the Assembly, to recognize my constitutional rights of stating my reasons for such refusal. But I thought it due to the Committee as an act of courtesy, to state briefly the principal reasons which I intended to submit to the Assembly. The reasons I might have given, many or few, or the nature of them, could not affect the question of contempt. That arose, if it existed, from the refusal, and not from the reasons. It was my intention, if the Assembly had been disposed to listen with patience, to submit to them my views and opinions in reference to the distribution of the powers of Government, and to show that the power they were then attempting to exercise was vested fully in the judicial department, and that it was not and ought not to be vested in the legislative department. I thought a little information in reference to their constitutional powers, could do them no harm, and it would be a novel entertainment. Moreover, it was evident, that if the Legislature possessed no such power, then I was fully justified in my refusal; but I did not base my refusal upon that ground, being satisfied that whatever others might think, the majority of the Legislature would adopt the opinions of the Supreme Court. My only motive in that part of my defence (which might be called the extraneous part) was to do the little which lay in my power, to bring the minds of the people to a consideration of this subject, and of the danger to their liberties; which the exercise by the Legislature of this vagrant, undefined, discretionary power was liable to work, in the hope that in the exercise of their sovereign authority, they would reform the Court, or the Constitution, or both.

The task of presenting these opinions in reference to the powers of the different departments of government, upon the subject of the investigation of criminal offences, I shall postpone until the opinions of the Judges of the Supreme Court, as prepared by themselves, shall be published, when it is my purpose to review them; and I flatter myself that I shall be able to show satisfactorily, that the power is clearly vested by the Constitution in the judicial department, and that the Legislature does not possess the power of investigating any and every alledged criminal act of their predecessors from the corrupt disposition of millions of acres of the public domain, down to the swindling of a nigger barber out of a pet bear—a power which acknowledges no limits, except its own unbridled, licentious discretion.

I have now presented to you a candid and truthful statement of what I did before the Committee, and of what I refused to do, and of my reasons therefor, I have gone further and unbosomed all my motives. If I have been guilty of any contempt of the Assembly it results from some of these acts or refusals. The Assembly have said that I am guilty. I say I am not. I submit the decision of this issue to you, with but a very brief argument.

The offence of contempt, like all other offences, depends entirely upon the intent with which the acts are committed, that are relied on to constitute the offence. In my case the act relied on is my refusal to be sworn and testify. It it is true, as I alledge, that my only motive in refusing was to obtain the action of the Legislature in relation to my objections to Messrs. Tenney and Knowlton, whom I believed to have been corrupt, then it was true that there was no refusal, in the sense most plainly inferable from the certificate of the Chairman of the Committee, and that there was no offensive intent, and of course no offence—no contempt. If, on the contrary, the motive for my refusal was an unwillingness to state the facts within my knowledge, from an apprehension of the consequences to myself or any other person, or if I was influenced by any other unjustifiable motive, then, (conceding the power of the Legislature in the premises, which is not now in dispute,) there was an offensive intent, and of course an offence, and I was guilty of a contempt, and merited the punishment which I received.

To judge truly of the motives of persons accused of crime, is always the most delicate and difficult duty of jurors. There are however, a few simple rules, which experience has shown will essentially aid the human mind in forming correct conclusions. Some of these are, that every man is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty; that men will generally act from the same motives, that usually influence sane and prudent men under similar circumstances; that where there is reasonable doubt of the guilt of the accused he is to be presumed, innocent. In my case, the occasion did not demand an exposition of my motives before the Committee, and none was made. This was reserved for my appearance before the Assembly, when I supposed ample opportunity would be afforded me for an exposition of them, and of the facts upon which they were based. Such an opportunity having been denied, my motives were locked up in my own breast, known only to myself, and can be learned by you only from my own declarations, and such interpretation as you choose to put upon my conduct. I only ask you in your charity to believe that I am not an idiot, and to judge me by the rules I have stated, I having no doubt that you will then believe my motives to have been such as I claim they were.

It would be the height of folly in me voluntarily to place my personal liberty in the keeping of a partizan majority of my political opponents, who would take but too much pleasure in subjecting me to all the degradation in their power, unless it was for the purpose of asserting and attempting to maintain my political rights. I have lived, now, about twenty-two years in Wisconsin—for about one-third of this period I have held a seat in one or the other branches of the Territorial and State Legislature, repeatedly presided over the house of which I was a member, and was under the necessity, from my position, of learning much of the rights and duties of the Legislature, and of the relative rights and duties of the citizen. It was my fortune to witness the organization of the Territorial Government, in 1836, and to take an active part in the establishment of our present State Government. I feel an attachment for Wisconsin, her Constitution, laws and institutions, which is second to that of no man in the State. It is the birth-place and contains the graves of my children; and I have the vanity to believe that I have some character at stake, and too much sense to sacrifice it in a foolish controversy with the Legislature, where I had nothing to gain, but the unenviable notoriety of having been sent to jail, as a martyr to the gratification of a stubborn, perverse will.—No, No; I have a high respect for the legislative office, and have always felt, and often said, that in our Republican Government a man could receive no higher political distinction than to be selected by his immediate neighbors to participate in forming those laws by which all must be governed.

But when the Legislature usurps powers which it does not possess, or undertakes arbitrarily and tyrannically to trample upon the rights of the citizen and to deprive him of those sacred rights, contained in the same great charter from which they derive their own powers, respect is converted into contempt, and esteem into derision. As an evidence of my loyalty to the Legislative authority when legitimately exercised, I refer to the fact that so soon as I was informed that the Assembly had acted upon my appeal I signified my willingness to be sworn and testify, and was sworn and did testify. It is true that the decision of the Assembly did not accord with my views of justice and right. It is true that the Assembly had not before them and would not allow me to present any evidences of the corrupt motives or conduct which I had charged. But this was no business of mine, if they chose to act in the dark, if they preferred darkness rather than light, they were responsible for it, not I, and I hope you will judge of their motives, with at least as much of charity as they judge mine.

The question as to what my motives were, for refusing to be sworn (for that is the whole question in this case) whether they were such as I have stated, or whether my statement is a mere pretence to cover up some improper and unworthy motive, is now before you for your decision. To that decision I am content to submit, and I shall cheerfully acquiesce in the verdict of my fellow citizens, with a full consciousness that I have done no intentional wrong, and that my most serious error was in trusting to the justice of a Black Republican Legislature, to respect rights guarantied to the humblest citizen of the State.

The story of my wrongs would be incomplete if I were to omit any reference to the scenes that occurred in the Assembly Chamber after the presentment of the accusation of the Chairman of the Committee. The "protest" of a portion of the members of the Assembly against the action of the majority, presents, however, a better description of those scenes than I can give, and I therefore take the liberty of inserting it at length:

The Assembly having, by a resolution passed unanimously on the 22d inst., discharged Moses M. Strong from the custody of the Sergeant at-Arms, in which he has been held for contempt of the Assembly, the undersigned members of the Assembly deem it proper to avail themselves of the earliest opportunity solemnly to protest against the hasty, excited and inconsiderate action of the Assembly, at its session commencing on the 19th of March, at 7½ o'clock P. M., and terminating the next morning at 4 o'clock A. M., and which resulted in the declaration and adjudication that Moses M. Strong was guilty of the offence of a contempt of the Assembly, and in a sentence of indefinite confinement in the common jail of Dane county, as a punishment for said offence, and they submit the following reasons for their protest:

The communication of Dennison Worthington, Chairman of the Investigating Committee, certifying that Mr. Strong had refused to be sworn and testify before the committee, was the accusation, and the only accusation the evidence, and the only evidence, before the Assembly that he had so refused, or that he had in any manner been guilty of a contempt of the Assembly. In this proceeding the Assembly was acting judicially; and so far as there is any analogy between judicial proceedings in Courts and in the Legislature, the accusation presented by the chairman of the investigating committee, was analagous to the presentment of an indictment by the foreman of a grand jury. Whenever an indictment is presented in court, the accused (if present, as Mr. Strong was,) is asked to plead. If he pleads "guilty," the doing so usually tends to the mitigation of his punishment: If he pleads "not guilty," he is entitled to a trial by a jury of his countrymen; has "the right to be heard by himself or counsel," and "to meet witnesses face to face."

The undersigned do not assert that all the forms observed in courts of justice for the purpose of securing to persons accused of crime, their constitutional rights, can in practice be adopted by Legislative bodies acting judicially; but they do insist that a person accused of the serious offence of contempt of the Assembly, an offence which subjects him, if guilty, not only to imprisonment by the Assembly, but also to fine and imprisonment by the courts; is entitled before being condemned to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him; to be allowed to admit or deny it, in other words, "to plead to the indictment," and to have some sort of a trial; and after all the facts in relation to the accusation are before the tribunal, which is to pass upon them, "to be heard by himself or counsel."

In the case of Mr. Strong, none of these forms—which are not mere forms, but are designed to secure valuable constitutional rights—were observed; but on the contrary, the moment the indictment was read, Mr. Knowlton, having first been informed by the Speaker that the accused was present, offered a resolution that he be "declared and adjudged guilty of a contempt of this Assembly in refusing to be sworn and testify."

This was a proposition to render a verdict and adjudication, that the accused was "guilty" without his ever having been informed of the "nature and cause of the accusation against him;" without permitting him to plead to it; without any evidence of its truth except the accusation itself; and without allowing him to exercise the "right to be heard by himself or counsel." This proposition was adopted by the Assembly, acting under an unusual degree of excitement, although several of the undersigned in the debate which ensued called the attention of the Assembly to its flagrant injustice. By its adoption the accused was deprived of all opportunity to exercise or enjoy any of the rights secured to him by the constitution.

The course pursued by the Assembly in denying to Mr. Strong the exercise of these sacred rights, was contrary to the precedents in all similar cases, with which they are acquainted, and was in direct conflict with the course pursued by the Assembly at its present session, in the cases of Byron Kilbourn, Thomas Falvey, and Chase A. Stevens, accused of contempt. This right was moreover distinctly recognized by the Supreme Court. The undersigned can conceive of no valid reason, why the same right should not have been recognized in the case of Mr. Strong, and they submit, that public sentiment will ascribe to the majority, the motive, of fear that the accused, if allowed the opportunity, would have exculpated himself of the offence with which he was charged. The belief that such was the motive will not be diminished by the fact that on a subsequent day the petition of Mr. Strong, containing his account of all the matters, connected with this subject, was refused a place on the journal, for the assigned reason "that memorials and petitions in no instance go upon the journal," although it is well known that they frequently have gone there, and that on the very day on which Mr. Strong's petition was presented, a communication, in the nature of a memorial or petition from Edward Daniels, criticizing a report of a committee of the Assembly, was spread upon the journal at full length.

The undersigned cannot avoid the conviction that in thus depriving Moses M. Strong of the rights guaranteed by the constitution, to him in common with every other citizen of the State, rights inherited from the Magna Charter of England, the Assembly inflicted a blow upon the rights and liberties of the people of this state, against which it is the imperative duty of all members of the Assembly who so think to record their solemn protest; and they believe that upon mature consideration the course pursued by the Assembly will be regretted by all.

The undersigned cannot conceive that any satisfactory reason can exist for the violation of the constitutional rights of which they complain in the assumption that in the case of Mr. Strong, the violation was only theoretical. Such an assumption may or may not be true.—If true, we answer that we are unwilling silently to witness the perpetration of a theoretical wrong. But the undersigned have too much good reason to suppose that a real and not a theoretical wrong has been perpetrated in the case of Mr. Strong, and that the Assembly have committed a "grave error." If, after being informed of "the nature of the cause and the accusation against him," Mr. Strong had been called upon to plead to it, he must, (if he pleaded to it,) have admitted or denied it.—He might have admitted it and excused himself by reasons of the form of the oath, (for the undersigned are informed that when he did subsequently take the oath, it was not until the committee made, at his request, a material modification of it,) or for aught the Assembly could have known he might have had conscientious scruples against taking the oath at all. Or he might have admitted the accusation as presented, and made a satisfactory apology; and in either of these contingencies, the Assembly would, of course, have discharged him, or, at the most, have discharged him with a reprimand. If he had denied the accusation, an issue of fact would have been presented, and if he could substantiate the statements contained in the petitions subsequently presented by him to the Assembly, it would have appeared that he did not, in the unqualified manner stated, refuse to be sworn and testify, but that his refusal was only for the purpose of procuring the judgment of the Assembly upon the correctness of the decision of the committee in reference to his application for the exclusion of the clerk of the committee and one of its members pending his examination. If the Assembly had been satisfied that such was the real fact, only a nominal contempt would have been committed, which, if punished at all, would have been only in the mildest form.

The undersigned also protest against the action of the Assembly at a subsequent stage of the proceedings, when Mr. Strong was brought to the bar of the Assembly, and asked if he was then willing to be sworn and testify.—Upon that occasion, he stated that he could not give a categorical answer, "yes" or "no" to the question propounded by the Speaker, and do himself justice, and asked for a short time to give his reasons. This request was refused by the Assembly. Thereupon the Assembly, assuming that the foregoing statement was the whole answer of Mr. Strong, although he stated it was not, passed a resolution "that the answer of Moses M. Strong is not satisfactory, and that he be brought to the bar of this House to receive its judgment."

After the Assembly had "declared and adjudged" that Mr. Strong was guilty of a contempt, it appears to the undersigned to have been a cruel mockery, having arraigned him at the bar of the Assembly to ask him, if in view of the impending punishment he would not still consent to be sworn and testify, and then undertake to dictate his answer. For aught the Assembly could have known, he might have said "yes, if you will but decide the appeal I have taken from the committee." Or he might have said "No," and given reasons for his refusal, which would have been perfectly satisfactory to the Assembly. And when he presented to the Speaker a written communication, couched in respectful language, asking a favor, what should have been conceded as a right, to be heard for five minutes, on which condition he would be sworn and testify, the right was denied and the favor refused. The undersigned protest against the proceedings now referred to, as unworthy the representatives of a civilized people.

The undersigned have affixed their names to this protest, from a sincere conviction that they owe it to themselves, their constituents, and the people of the whole State, to present the true reasons which have influenced their action, for the purpose of disabusing an impression which to some extent exists, that they were opposed to investigation, and to leave on record in an enduring form, the opinions they entertain in reference to what they deem a gross violation of the rights of the people of this State, in the person of one of its earliest inhabitants, who has largely shared the confidence and respect of his fellow-citizens.

The undersigned respectfully ask that this their deliberate protest, against the action of the Assembly to which they have referred, may be entered at length upon its journal.

Madison, April 23, 1858.

Upon one other point of trifling importance, comparatively, and which I should not have thought it worth while to notice by itself, I have been much misrepresented. It is whether I finally yielded or whether the Assembly did. —The answer to this question depends upon the answer to those already stated.—If it be true as I assert that I was always willing to be sworn and testify whenever the Assembly would decide (either way) the questions which I presented in reference to Mr. Tenney and Mr. Knowlton, then it was no yielding on my part to signify that willingness so soon as they made that decision. I do not say that it was any yielding of the Assembly to decide the question, but I do say it was a tardy, if not a reluctant, discharge of a duty which they owed to me, and which they performed in ignorance of the facts, when they ought to have done the same thing a week earlier, with the aid of all the light they could get upon the subject from myself or any one else.

I dismiss this subject with the remark that I feel deeply aggrieved at the great violation of my rights, to which I have been forcibly compelled to submit. But the belief that no considerable portion of my fellow citizens will give their deliberate sanction and approval to the proceedings of the Committee or Assembly, furnishes me a satisfactory consolation, upon which I hope I may with confidence rely. And if it shall result, as I trust it may, that the political tyranny of which I have been made the victim, shall open the eyes of the people, to the danger to which they are subject from a silent submission to the violation of the rights of a single citizen, and that what has been my fate this year may be theirs next, I shall feel that "I have done the State some service."

Very respectfully submitted,
MOSES M. STRONG.

OTTAWA STARCH WORKS
PURE LAUNDRY STARCH.

GOLDEN GLOSS STARCH, for Muslins, Laces, and nice laundry work.
FARINA, for Puddings, &c., &c.

We would invite the special attention of the Trade to these new varieties of Starch, which, after repeated comparative tests by unbiased and experienced judges, are now offered as articles which in every respect have NO EQUAL IN THIS COUNTRY.

The factory being located in the heart of the corn growing region of Illinois, the manufacturers are enabled to buy the raw material directly of the producers, and therefore can sell their Starch lower than any other Corn Starch manufactured.

We have numerous testimonials from laundry men, hotel keepers and others, as to its superiority over any other Starch they ever used.

For family use, we have ten pound boxes, containing the three varieties.

Playing Robinson Crusoe.

The Detroit Free Press relates a Robinson Crusoe story of three young lads who ran away from their anxious mammas in that city, took to the lake in an old skiff, and were hunted by the police for some time. It says:

It being known that they were sometimes in the habit of going to Belle Isle, two miles above the city, to fish, search was instituted in that direction. An old Frenchman, on the island reported that a colony of some mysterious description was settled on the upper end of the island, but he was unabled to say who its members were composed of. Further investigations, however, revealed the fact that the new colony was made up of the romantic young runaways whose anxious mammas were in search of them. They were very snugly domiciled in an old fishing hut of small dimensions, the cracks of which they had stopped with grass and weeds. An old fireplace in one corner, with a mud chimney, was well supplied with driftwood from the beach and a skillet and tin kettle constituted their cooking utensils. Three blankets and a bench completed the outfit. On the walls were hung the fishing tackle.

When first surprised, the runaways were engaged in the agreeable occupation of demolishing a large pike, which had been been cooked in the skillet, with no seasoning but salt. They said they had had lots of fun, and plenty of fish to eat, and were intending to remain all summer if they had not been discovered. The oldest, only about twelve years of age, said that the idea had been put into his head by reading Robinson Crusoe, and that he had persuaded the others off. Their felicity was complete, with the exception that they wanted a man Friday, to secure which they had contemplated crossing over to Canada and kidnapping a small Kanuck boy. This was abandoned as too dangerous, considering the small available force, and it was then planned that one of them should return to the city and coax his sweet heart, a little girl, to come and live with them and cook the fish.—This plan would have been carried out had they not been found. They were returned to their mammas with colds from sleeping on the floor.

THE FIREMEN OF LONDON.—The ages of the London firemen range from twenty to sixty and upwards, and there is one man now in the service in his seventieth year, quite able to take his turn on duty with the rest. The men are carefully selected, and full three-fourths of them have been men-of war's men. The duties these men have to perform are by no means light, for each man, on the average, has been on duty at the station house, or on the watch on premises damaged by fire, three days and three nights of twelve hours each in every week of the past year. This is exclusive of a sort of engine drill for the younger men twice a week, and attendance to clean engines and tools, and repair and oil the hose; and of attendance and working at fires, where the men are in the midst of intense heat, steam and smoke, saturated with water, and obliged to stand in elevated situations, exposed to severe and cutting winds, so that they are often seen in winter literally encrusted with ice. The men are sometimes called out by fires, or alarms of fire, as many as four times in one night. Notwithstanding this hard duty and extreme exposure, the rate of mortality among the firemen is highly favorable.

FIFTY GREAT CURES are known to have been made in Washington within two weeks past, and in Baltimore at least one hundred, besides hundreds relieved of Corns, Toothache, Felons, and more trifling pains and aches. In Bridgetown, N. J., in Harrisburg and Wilmington, and also from Cleveland, Ohio, indeed everywhere it has been introduced the report is wonderful.—All say it beats everything ever tried to take out pain, and to thoroughly remove from the system both Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, Rheumatism, Swellings, Sores, Sprains, Wounds, Cuts, Burns, and to cure Palpitation and partial Paralysis. It will do it in ninety-nine cases in every hundred, if used according to directions; and it is pleasant, does not smart, nor interfere with any food, nor other medicine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13,

Prof. De Grath—I can sell a great deal of your Oil, as it is well spoken of in our neighborhood, and not a day passes but that I have many calls for it, although Messrs. Stock & Co. keep it. Send some immediately and oblige yours truly, ROBERT A. PAYNE,
Druggist, cor. Fourth st. and M. Av.

See my written name on the wrappers; name blown in glass also. PROF. DE GRATH, 39 South Eighth Street, Philadelphia.

☞ For sale by Bosworth & Sons, and J. H. Tesch Milwaukee; Fahnestock & Davis, and Reed & Co., Chicago; and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the country. apr22 1&w1w

☞ The greatest natural ornament to the human form is unquestionably a fine, luxuriant, healthy growth of hair. It has been so esteemed in all ages of the world, and among all nations, savage and civilized. Hence, the Indian brave regards the scalp of his enemy as his greatest trophy. For a similar reason, the fashionable belle often disguises the reign of vanity, as well as her other phrenological organs with borrowed locks.

He who should discover a mode of preventing the hair from showing the inroads of envious Time by turning prematurely gray, a method by which it could be restored when falling off or turning white, and a way of promoting its luxuriant growth, would be justly entitled to rank among the benefactors of the human race. Read the testimonials in another column of the wonderful not to say, almost miraculous effects of "Professor Wood's Hair Restorative," and see if he has not accomplished all this. —Capital City Fact.
Sold by all respectable Druggists.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL!

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, Mass., Dec. 20th, 1855

Dr. J. C. AYER—I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER:—I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., Monterey, Ia., writes 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR:—Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to these the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR!!

ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and Liver Medicines now before the public, namely DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject the morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels, to carry off the matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums. Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel without any of its deleterious effects.

Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine tried and known in its effects. It has rarely or ever failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.

INDIGESTION being caused by a deranged Liver is cured when the Liver is excited to action.

JAUNDICE is caused by the improper action of the Liver, and as a proof that the Invigorator relieves this disease, let any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.

COSTIVENESS can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.

SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the Invigorator, which corrects all acidity and sourness of the stomach.

For an overloaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating heartily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR came to us recommended to us as a cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a diseased Liver. The testimonials of so many of our Physicians in its favor induced us to try it, and now conviction is certain that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and now we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain. Now what we want to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this the greatest remedy in the world.—State Fact.

We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER and AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVERS of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

There has never been tried in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of diseases incident to children, as DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; nor is it alone for diseases of children that we use it; for it acts as a Cathartic so mildly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly that we think we are doing a service to all in advising them, when they need medicine, to try this remedy. There are cases that have come under our notice where great benefit has been received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, where all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become so useful in our family that we will not be without it.—Jacksonville, Ala. Republican.

A RETIRED PHYSICIAN,

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF AGE, whose sands of life have nearly run out, discovered, while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him, when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. Wishing to do as much good as possible, he will send to such of his afflicted fellow-beings as request it, this recipe, with full and explicit directions for making it up, and successfully using it.—He requires each applicant to inclose him one shilling—three cents to be returned as postage on the recipe, and the remainder to be applied to the payment of this advertisement.

DYSPEPSIA AND FITS.
DR. TRACY DELORME,

THE Great Curer of Consumption, was for several years so badly afflicted by Dyspepsia, that for part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given by a mere child, while in a state of trance, has cured everybody who has taken it, never having failed once. It is equally as sure in cases of FITS and DYSPEPSIA. The ingredients may be found in any drug store. I will send this valuable prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. GRAIN CLEANER & SEPARATOR
HORTON'S PATENT

G. B. BINGHAM & BRO.,
Sole Manufacturers in Wisconsin.

THIS MACHINE is of recent invention, and surpasses all others in use for its perfections as a thorough Separator and Scourer. It has given entire satisfaction in New York, Pennsylvania and other States where it has been introduced, and we are confident it is better adapted to the cleaning of Western grain than any other ever introduced into this State. It is fire proof, not liable to get out of repair, requires but little power to run it, and the scouring cylinder so constructed as to render it unnecessary to be renewed for years. We respectfully invite all Western Millers to give us a call, and examine our machine, at the Bay State Foundry, Florida st., Milwaukee, Wis.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

COTTON GROWING IN INDIA.—It has been repeatedly said that the experiments at cotton growing in British India were failures. The statistics of English importations of this staple for the last few years, however, indicate a considerable degree of success in India cotton growing. In 1855 England received 1,296,000 pounds of cotton from India and 6,086,000 from the United States; in 1857 India sent 2,235,000 pounds and the United States 5,846,000. It thus appears that the India cotton is steadily gaining on the American in the English market. The India cotton is of shorter staple and therefore inferior, and unless this defect can be overcome, it can never supercede the American staple, for the better class of fabrics. It may, however, drive the coarser American cottons out of the market.

The earlier experiments in cotton raising in India were made by Americans, in the employ of the East India company, were very expensive and resulted in a total failure. It was pretty broadly insinuated that the Yankees make an effort not to succeed, but the more likely explanation is that they did not know how to adapt the culture to a climate and soil differing from our own. Two Massachusetts men took premiums from the government of India for the best cleaning machines, but they have not been brought into practical use on account of the expense of construction. Labor is so cheap in India that expensive machinery cannot compete with human bone and muscle. As to the prospect that England can dispense with American cotton, our planters have little to fear. The competition of India will never amount to a great deal, and the experiments to be made in Africa may not result in any greater success. Our slave grown cotton is likely to be king for some time to come at least.—Springfield Republican.

THE PEER AND THE PAINTER.—The Duke of Somerset (a Seymour,) commonly called "the proud duke," employed Seymour, the artist, to paint the portraits of his horses at Petworth.—One day, at dinner the duke filled his glass, and saying with a sneer—

"Cousin Seymour, your health," drank it off.

"My lord," said the artist, "I believe I have the honor of being related to your grace."

The proud peer rose from the table, and ordered his steward to dismiss the presumptuous painter, and employ an humble brother of the brush.

This was accordingly done; but when the new painter saw the spirited works of his predecessor, he shook his head, and retired, saying: No man in the world can compete with James Seymour.

The duke now condescended to recall his discarded cousin.

"My lord was the answer of Seymour, "I will now prove to the world that I am of your blood —I won't come!

Upon receiving this laconic reply, the duke sent his steward to demand a former loan of one hundred pounds sterling.

Seymour briefly replied that he would write to his grace; he did so, but directed his letter. "Opposite the trunk maker's, Charing Cross,

Enraged at this additional insult, the duke threw the letter into the fire without opening it, and immediately ordered his steward to have him arrested.

But Seymour, struck with an opportunity of evasion, carelessly observed, that "it was hasty in his grace to burn his letter, because it contained a bank note of one hundred pounds sterling, and, therefore, they were now quits."

PITTSBURG, FT. WAYNE & CHICAGO RAILROAD!

THIS New and Direct Route now open to New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington City, Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and all Eastern Cities, Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Springfield, Urbana, Zanesville, Steubenville, Newark and Wheeling, and all interior towns of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, &c., making one grand unbroken Rail Road line between

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant Route, should be particular and ask for Tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other Routes.

Trains leave Depot on VAN BUREN ST., daily as follows

6:00 A. M. 8.45 P. M.

With but one change of cars to Pittsburgh.

CHECKING BAGGAGE THROUGH

To Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York. Connecting directly with trains on the great Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to all Eastern cities. Also, with Cleveland and Columbus Railroad to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

Tickets for sale at all the principal ticket offices at the West, and at the Company's Office, No. 90 Dearborn St., opposite the Tremont House, Chicago, and at the office of the Lake Shore Railroad, Milwaukee, by A. G. Leland.

AGENTS WANTED.

THE GREAT GIFT SALE of Gold Pencils, by A. H. Wilford & Co., Washington City, D. C., offers an excellent chance to Agents to make a few dollars with little or no expense. We are manufacturing and selling beautiful solid Gold Pencils for $5 each, (the actual retail price,) and giving each purchaser a gift, worth from two dollars up to two hundred dollars. Each purchaser of a Pencil is sure of a $2 gift at least, or it may be worth $5, $10, $15, $20, $30, $50, $75, $100, or $200. The prizes are distributed to purchasers by a simple plan of drawing, and as soon as the name of a purchaser is received with the $5, his Pencil and Gift are put in a small box, in a safe manner, and sent to the owner by mail, post paid. Our plan gives perfect satisfaction, as each purchaser can sell or trade his Pencil for all it costs him, and retain the gift gratis.

We want a good agent in every part of the country, to solicit purchasers, and a good agent, to be successful, should first have a Pencil and Prize to exhibit. We allow an agent one dollar cash for each purchaser he obtains. which amount he may retain out of the $5; and the first person becoming a purchaser at any post office, will receive the agency for that neighborhood.

A NEW AND IMPORTANT IDEA.

We propose to let a person know what gift he will draw, before requiring any money to be sent. Any person desiring one of our massive Gold Pencils, can first send us their name and address, and we will make their drawing and inform them by return mail what prize they drew. They can have the privilege of sending for it if they choose. We cannot, however, give this privilege but once to any person, and we make this offer to establish Agencies, and introduce our Pencils in a neighborhood. After a person becomes a purchaser and accept the agency, we require all persons in that locality to send their $5 in advance through him. Purchasers may rely upon it that we will promptly forward their Pencil and Prize, whatever it may be, by return mail, on receipt of the $5. Full particulars, with a plan of distribution, will be sent to each person making application for a drawing. Address

Private and Confidential Medical Advice.

AT THE MILWAUKEE Venerian Hospital, established for the cure of Syphilis, Seminal Weakness, and the infirmities of youth and maturity, by Dr. Barnes.

Dr. BARNES takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Milwaukee and other places, that his office is at No. 12 Wisconsin Street.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases, their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the treatment and study of Syphilis, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Strictures, effect of solitary habits, ulcers upon the body, throat, nose or legs, pain in the head or bones, and all Mercurial Affections, and all impurities of the Blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Dr. B. makes no charge for short consultations.—Those requiring much advice should enclose a small fee sufficient to compensate for the time required to write the answer.

MEDICAL.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,

FROM

The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimple on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm,

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, MASS.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skilful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother

NURSING SORE MOUTH,

Is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, ensuing

DYSPEPSIA,

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonous fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.
